ARTICLE 3

NATIONAL AND MOST FAVORED -NATION TREATMENT

- 1) Each Contracting Party shall in its territory accord to investments and returns of investors of the other Contracting Party treatment which is fair and equitable and not less favourable than that which it accords to investments and returns of its own investors or to investments and returns of investors of any third State which ever is more favourable.
- 2) Each Contracting Party shall in its territory accord to investors of the other Contracting Party, as regards management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of their investment, treatment, which is fair and equitable and not less favourable than that which it accords to its own investors or to investors of any third State, whichever is more favourable.
- 3) The provisions of paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege which may be extended by the former Contracting Party by virtue of:
 - a) any customs union or free trade area or a monetary union or similar international agreements leading to such unions or institutions or other forms of regional cooperation to which either of the Contracting Parties is or may become a party, or any agreement with any country member of such regional cooperation;
 - b) any international agreement or arrangement relating wholly or mainly to taxation.

ARTICLE 4

COMPENSATION FOR LOSSES

- 1) When investments of investors of either Contracting Party suffer losses owing to war, armed conflict, a state of national emergency, revolt, insurrection, riot or other similar events in the territory of the other Contracting Party, they shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party treatment, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or other settlement, not less favourable than that which the latter Contracting Party accords to its own investors or to investors of any third State.

- 2) Without prejudice to paragraph 1 of this Article, investors of one Contracting Party who in any of the events referred to in that paragraph suffer losses in the territory of the other Contracting Party resulting from:
 - a) requisitioning of their property by its forces or authorities ; or
 - b) destruction of their property by its forces or authorities which was not caused in combat action or was not required by the necessity of the situation, shall be accorded just and adequate compensation for the losses sustained during the period of the requisitioning or as a result of the destruction of the property. Resulting payments shall be freely transferable in a freely convertible currency without delay.

ARTICLE 5

EXPROPRIATION

- 1) Investments of investors of either Contracting Party shall not be nationalized, expropriated or subjected to measures having effect equivalent to nationalization or expropriation (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") in the territory of the other Contracting Party except for a public purpose. The expropriation shall be carried out under due process of law, on a non-discriminatory basis and shall be accompanied by provisions for the payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation. Such compensation shall amount to the market value of the investment expropriated immediately before expropriation or impending expropriation became public knowledge, shall include interest from the date of expropriation until the date of payment, shall be made without delay, and shall be effectively realizable and freely transferable in a freely convertible currency.

- 2) The investor affected shall have a right to prompt review by a judicial or other independent authority of that Contracting Party of his or its case and of the valuation of his or its investment in accordance with the principles set out in this Article.

ARTICLE 6

TRANSFERS

- 1) The Contracting Parties shall guarantee the transfer of payments related to investments and returns. The transfers shall be made in a freely convertible currency, without any restriction and undue delay. Such transfers shall include in particular, though not exclusively:
 - a) capital and additional amounts to maintain or increase the investment ;
 - b) profits , interest , dividends and other current income;
 - c) funds in repayment of loans;
 - d) royalties or fees;
 - e) proceeds of sale or liquidation of the investment;
 - f) the earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad in connection with an investment.

- 2) For the purpose of this Agreement , exchange rates shall be prevailing rates effective for the current transactions at the date of transfer , unless otherwise agreed .

ARTICLE 7

SUBROGATION

- 1) If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment to its own investors under a guarantee it has accorded in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party , the latter Contracting Party shall recognize:
 - a) the assignment , whether under the law or pursuant to a legal transaction in that country , of any right or claim by the investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency , as well as ;
 - b) that the former Contracting Party or its designated agency is entitled by virtue of subrogation to exercise the rights and enforce the claims of that investor and shall assume the obligations related to the investment .
- 2) The subrogated rights or claims shall not exceed the original rights or claims of the investor .

ARTICLE 8

ARTICLE 9
SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES BETWEEN THE CONTRACTING PARTIES

- 1) Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement should, if possible, be settled through consultations or negotiations.
- 2) If the dispute cannot be thus settled within six months , it shall upon the request of either Contracting Party be submitted to Arbitral Tribunal in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
- 3) The Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way. Within two months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the Tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third State who on approval by the two Contracting Parties shall be appointed Chairman of the tribunal (hereinafter referred to as the "Chairman"). The Chairman shall be appointed within three (3) months from the date of appointment of the other two members.
- 4) If within the periods specified in paragraph 3 of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, a request may be made to the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointments. If he happens to be a national of either Contracting Party, or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-president shall be invited to make the appointments. If the Vice-President also happens to be a national of either Contracting Party or is prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the appointments.

- 5) The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own arbitrator and its representation in the arbitral proceedings; the cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by both Contracting Parties. The Arbitral Tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

ARTICLE 10

APPLICATION OF OTHER RULES AND SPECIAL COMMITMENTS

- 1) Where a matter is governed simultaneously both by this Agreement and by another international agreement to which both Contracting Parties are parties, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent either Contracting Party or any of its investors who own investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party from taking advantage of whichever rules are more favorable to his case.
- 2) If the treatment to be accorded by one Contracting Party to investors of the other Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations or other specific provisions of contracts is more favorable than that accorded by this Agreement, the more favourable shall be accorded.

ARTICLE 11

APPLICABILITY OF THIS AGREEMENT

The provisions of this Agreement shall apply to future investments made by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and also to the existing investments in accordance with the laws of the Contracting Parties on the date of this Agreement came into force. However, the provisions of this Agreement shall not apply to claims arising out of events which occurred, or to claims which had been settled prior to its entry into force.

ARTICLE 12

ENTRY INTO FORCE

DURATION AND TERMINATION

- 1) Each of the Contracting Parties shall notify the other of the completion of the procedures required by its law for bringing this Agreement into force. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the second notification.

- 2) This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years. Thereafter, it shall remain in force until the expiration of a twelve month period from the date either Contracting Party notifies the other in writing of its intention to terminate the Agreement.

- 3) In respect of investments made prior to the termination of this Agreement , the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to be effective for a period of ten years from the date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned duly authorized have signed this Agreement.
